Afropop Worldwide (00:00 - 59:00)

'Afropop Worldwide' is a 59-minute music program with a 20-second music filled ID break that falls between 25 and 35 minutes into the hour. The outcue before the break is always, "I'm Georges Collinet. You're listening to 'Afropop Worldwide' from PRX."

It is followed by music and talk that leads into the next segment.

The exact placement of the break in each show is listed in the weekly Timings and Cues on the DACS.
